Handling Cybersecurity and Data Breaches ☆

Thursday, 03/08/2018: 3:45 pm - 5:00 pm
 Room: N220D
 Session Number: TH33

Description

Discuss lessons learned from both large and small data breaches (e.g., Target, small web design company) and the takeaways from them, i.e., the significant change to the legal landscape that continues to occur in the data security/data breach arena which means that no companies are immune from liability. Examine the potential impact of a data breach on a business and the steps that businesses can take to protect themselves before, during and after a breach including the FTC's "commercially reasonable standard." In addition, hear from a media leader on how to navigate any media coverage post-crisis, whether you're a business or an agency, get tips on reinstating confidence in your brand, whether it's a business product or a government agency.
